New Bank Manager For Sierra Madre's First Western

HARLAN THOMPSON
... New Branch Manager

Executive changes for First Western Bank's Sierra Madre Office have been announced for the week of June 1, according to Regional Vice President Robert Cooke. The Branch Manager Marv Neelands is transferring to head the $900 million bank's Temple City Office. He will be succeeded by Harlan Thompson.

Mr. Thompson, who entered the world of banking in 1947, joined First Western in 1953. He is a graduate of Pomona College in Claremont. For First Western he has specialized in commercial and real estate lending and has served in managerial capacities for the Alhambra and Pasadena offices.

Active in numerous professional and civic organizations including the Masonic Lodge, Mr. Thompson has just been elected president of the Pasadena Chapter of the American Institute of Banking.

A native of Orange, Massachusetts, Mr. Thompson came to California to attend college and stayed here ever since. He is a veteran of the Air Force and presently resides in Hacienda Heights with his family.

Congratulations Norman Boehm

Congratulations to City Administrator Norman Boehm. It was on June 10, 1968, that he took up the duties of being Sierra Madre City Administrator.

After vacancy in the office for several months he picked up the duties of Acting City Administrator Charles Martin.

Debris Work Now 60% Done

The excavation trucks began rolling again during May after the contractor for the project, Griggs and Norwood, were able to settle some labor problems. The excavation trucks are now using the alternate route which takes them out of the City on Mountain Trail to Orange Grove Avenue.

The dirt is being used as fill for the construction of the westerly extension of the Foothill Freeway. The dam excavation project is approximately 60 per cent complete and will probably continue for another four to five weeks at the present excavation rate.

You Must Read This Article

At considerable expense to us, we have, for your reading pleasure, published on Page eleven and twelve of this issue one of the greatest letters that we have been privileged to read.

This letter, written by T. M. Hesburgh, C.S.C., President of the University of Notre Dame, has so impressed the Editor of this Newspaper that he has read and re-read its contents several times.

The letter deals with the disturbance on the campuses of our Universities, Colleges and even our High Schools and Junior High Schools. President Hesburgh deals only with Notre Dame, but his thinking could be adopted by President after President all over the nation, and once it was adopted the turmoil that now rages would be quieted for ever.

We present it to you for your reading and understanding.

Fire Calls In Series

After 286 hours without a call, your Volunteer Firefighters were called into action Wednesday at the hour of 2:30 p.m. to the Wisteria Coin Laundry at 370 West Sierra Madre Blvd.

Engine 424 responded and presented itself at the scene of the fire in one minute and 10 seconds after the sounding of the alarm to find that one of the coin operated washers was smoking. Evidently it was a malfunction of the washer, which threw out considerable black smoke but never stopped its cycle of operation.

Thirteen regular firefighters and two reserves answered the alarm, and after Fire Chief Charles Brown declared no damage, he released the men at 2:45 to return to the station and prepare the equipment for the next call.

For Fire Suppression this was the 40th call of the current year as compared to 20 at this time during the year last year.

Sierra Madre Night At the Dodger Stadium

Saturday, June 14 is Sierra Madre Night at Dodger Stadium when the Dodgers will be hosting the New York Mets. Mayor Hartman and Mayor Pro Tem Simons will represent the City in the pre-game ceremonies. Buses have been lined up to provide transportation from the City Hall Parking Lot at 6:15 p.m. to Dodger Stadium and back. The cost of $4 includes the admittance to Dodger Stadium and the bus fare.

Danger Now Believed Eliminated By Exterminators As Of Last Saturday

Colonization Could Have Been For Past Two Years

THE LOXOSCELES LAETA, poisonous spider that was found in the buildings in Memorial Park have now been completely eliminated by fumigation. Surrounding buildings have been inspected with no inhabitants found.

by R. Robert Evans

Your City Officials and the local press have been aware of the presence of the Loxosceles Laeta Spiders since they were discovered last week inhabiting several buildings in Memorial Park.

The unique finding of the "South American Violin Spider," the name it will be called all over the nation, in Sierra Madre has been confirmed by Dr. Willis Gertsch, renowned spider expert. Though this spider is venomous, its discovery in Sierra Madre is more of scientific interest than actual danger to the public.

The discovery of the "South American Violin Spider" is an entomological phenomenon. It has been reported only one other time in the United States in the basement of a college museum in Cambridge, Mass. In 1964. How the species came to the Sierra Madre Park House remains a mystery.

The Violin Spider, known in its native habitat of Chile, Argentina and parts of Brazil as the "Spider of the Corners," is extremely timid according to Los Angeles County entomologist William Waldron. Waldron reports that the Violin Spider shies away from areas of human activity and prefers dark and undisturbed places. It bites human beings only when provoked such as being handled or brushed against.

The find of the Violin Spider was made by Mel Thompson, who resides in Sierra Madre and is employed at the McCurdy Nature Center in Pasadena. Mr. Thompson noticed a spider while participating in a Sierra Madre Theatre Group practice in the Memorial Park House recently. Having a special interest in spiders he captured the specimen which was subsequently identified as the South American Violin Spider. Its —Please turn to Page 12

Car Accidents On Weekend Injure Two

Two accidents, involving injuries, occurred over the past weekend.

The first accident took place on Saturday, June 7 at 12:26 p.m. on Santa Anita Court. A car driven by 24 year old student, Robert Powell Kingston of San Diego with Linda Joyce Hedman as passenger, was westbound on Santa Anita Court when it struck an eastbound car driven by Lois Blanche Parker, of 285 Santa Anita Court. Driver Kingston stated that the car turned into a driveway in front of him without making any signal. Miss Hedman, who resides at 411 Santa Anita Court, was taken to St. Luke Hospital with lacerations to the forehead.

A pedestrian was injured in the second accident which occurred on Sunday, June 8 at 2:30 p.m. on San Gabriel Court.

Seventeen year old Jayne Danowsky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Danowsky was struck by a neighbor and close friend, seventeen year old Margaret Matakovich, as she and another friend crossed the street. Miss Matakovich stated that: "The two girls were walking in the middle of the street, one went left and one went right. I turned to the right and tried to stop, but stepped on the ac-

Dear Fellow Citizens:

It is with great concern that I am writing this letter. I am deeply alarmed with the lack of response from the citizens of Sierra Madre regarding the fund raising drive for the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team.

This volunteer organization operates at no cost to the taxpayers. They have completed over one thousand rescues and have saved hundreds of lives, including those of many local residents, over the past nineteen years.

In the course of these activities they sacrifice thousands of hours yearly from their personal lives and have brought world-wide acclaim to our city.

Not only are they on call 24 hours a day for Search and Rescue operations, they are also an integral part of Sierra Madre Civil Defense.

To date less than $400 has been donated, a figure far less than their goal of $4,000 which the team desperately needs in order to continue their work.

WE MUST NOT LET THESE MEN DOWN.

Please send your donations immediately c/o the Sierra Madre News.

Robert (Bud) Hartman
Mayor, City of Sierra Madre

To date only $478 has been received from the following contributors. Three years ago in the same amount of time the Team had received over $3,500.00 from a total of 143 donors. We must come to the rescue of the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team.

Pancake Breakfast Saturday

The Twelfth Annual Kiwanis Breakfast will be held on schedule Saturday, June 14 in Memorial Park between the hours of 7 a.m. and 12 o'clock Noon.

Certification has been given by the Los Angeles County Health Department that the "Slender Scare" is all over with, that all buildings have been completely fumigated and there is absolutely no danger now existing.

Kiwanians have planned a gala affair for that day and will be on hand to cook pancakes and sausage for all who attend. There are still many, many tickets for —Please turn to Page 9

Weed Abatement By City Starts On June 16

The thirty days which owners of property involved in the weed abatement program have been granted to clear their property of weeds will expire on June 13. At this time all those properties involved will be inspected by the Fire Prevention Bureau.

On Monday, June 16, city forces will begin weed abatement chores for those properties not in compliance. Seven high school and college students, six of whom live in Sierra Madre, will do the actual work under the supervision of full time field personnel. At the conclusion of the program in late July, costs will be tabulated and owners will have the opportunity to protest charges before the City Council if they so choose prior to billing and payment.

Auburn Ave. Construction Report

Bids for the construction of the water line in Auburn Avenue and Auburn Lane are now being invited. Plans and specifications prepared by the City Engineer have been adjusted to reflect the use of asbestos cement pipes as the primary pipe material in lieu of the concrete lined and coated steel pipes originally specified. Other specification adjustments include expanding the time for the project from 40 to 50 working days and easing traffic requirements to the point where the contractor need only provide one-way traffic and may, under certain circumstances, close a section to through traffic so long as residents are assured of continual access. Three test borings were taken to a depth of five feet and no major boulders were found in the boring pits made, which information may be helpful to a prospective bidder. The bid opening date is June 18, 1969; advertisements for the project have already appeared in the Sierra Madre News. In addition, price contractors which do AC pipe work are being personally contacted by the Engineer's office as are those recommended by engineering consultants Haver and Emerson.

Curbs and Gutters Near Completion For Grandview

Plans and specifications for the installation of curb, gutters and sidewalk for the remainder of the Grandview Avenue sidewalk project from Camillo to Stonehouse Road are being prepared by the City Engineer's office which will complete this sidewalk project authorized by the Council several months ago.

At present, sidewalks have been installed and exist on the north side of Grandview Avenue from Cañon to Camillo Street. The portion from Camillo to Stonehouse Road will require curbs and gutters as well as sidewalks and will be brought to the Council in early July with a recommendation for going to bid as a Gas Tax project.

All man really needs, continues the item, in order to survive is powdered milk, cooking oil, fortified cereal and multi-vitamin capsules. Man, that is really tightening the old belt right down to the last notch... they should have thrown in a bottle of booze which might be needed to help endure such a stringent diet.

—CT—

Speaking about booze, I just learned yesterday that this is not good medicine for snake bite... gee, will wonders never cease, you know I have been taking a fifth of that filthy stuff every time I go out in the back yard to pull weeds. Don't pull many weeds, but do accumulate a lot of bottles, guess if I run across Mr. Rattler I could hit him in the head with the bottle. In that condition, I'll just bet there are a lot of two-headed snakes.

Went down to the VIP travel office the other day to see about a reservation out to Irwindale. Noticed a well dressed man doing some dealing with Horst Engle. They seemed to be having a little trouble with figures when all of a sudden Horst threw down the pad and made the following remark... "For the price you have in mind, sir, I suggest that you join the Navy." You know... "Join the Navy and ride the Waves." ... my, my, my what filthy language.

Here is a new item on the market, should you see one running around the neighborhood think nothing of it, it won't bite, but it sure might help out in a fire emergency.

—CT—

The new item is a vehicle, the sand caster, which has been developed to fight forest fires. It digs steel claws into the earth and hurls its load at the top of burning trees. The U. S. Forest Service and other forestry experts consider it to be one of their most valuable weapons in battling crown fires in which the blaze leaps from tree top to tree top. Now if we could just develop an item that would take care of the water run-off after the burn, we would have it fairly well —Please turn to Page 14

Q: On May 13, 1969, the City Council adjourned their meeting to May 20, 1969. What is the difference between an adjourned and special meeting?

A: The City Council has its regular legislative meetings on the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month. If there is an insufficient number of members present for a quorum, or there is unfinished business or for other reasons the meeting may be adjourned to a specific date and time before the next regular meeting. This next meeting is called an adjourned regular meeting. A copy of the notice of adjournment should be posted within 24 hours of adjournment on or near the door where the meeting usually takes place. This order states the date, time, and place of the adjourned meeting.

A special meeting is one that has not been designated by any legislative body by resolution, ordinance, rule, etc. No other business but the business to be transacted may be brought up at a special meeting. Notice of a special meeting may be delivered personally or by mail to each member of the legislative body at least 24 hours before the meeting. The meeting may be called by the presiding officer or the majority of the members.

Camp Fire Girls Close Year With Many Group Ceremonials; Many Advanced

As the school year draws to a close, many group ceremonials are taking place among Camp Fire Girls. Three of these groups in the Sierra-Hastings District are the O-Da-Can-D-W, Ki-O-Wa-Ka and Keema-O-Tanka.

May 26 was the memorable day for Candy Evans, Cynthia Benson, Cathy Zebelen, Louise Denslow, Margo Stumpf, and Katherine Kurzwel when they attained the second measured step of the Camp Fire Girls, and were awarded the silver ring denoting the rank of Wood Gatherer.

The ceremonial, with the theme of red, white and blue, took place in Memorial Park. Refreshments included a beautiful cake, decorated with the Wood Gatherer's Desire by Mrs. Doug Fraser.

Mrs. Howard Wagner, the group's leader, and Mrs. Donald Benson, sponsor made the presentations.

Fourth grade Camp Fire Girls of the Ki-U-Wa-Ka group attained the first step along the Camp Fire trail with the achievement of Trail Seeker's Rank.

Carol Mize, Nina Talley and Johanna Morgan each earned the Martha F. Allen membership charm for bringing in a new member; Susan Wade, Ann Milne, and Julie Tyler, respectively.

Girls who earned rank include Patricia Byrne, Kari

Johnson, Carol Mize, Johanna Morgan, Patty Nielsen, Nina Talley and Holly de Prosse.

The theme of the ceremonial which took place on the patio at the home of the William Talley's was Friendship in honor of the new girls who were especially welcomed and participated in the ceremonial.

Awards were made by their leader, Mrs. James Mize.

Also achieving the rank of Trail Seeker were girls in the Keema-O-Tanka group. Besides receiving the Trail Seeker's charm, the girls also received the Keep America Beautiful award for planting flowers on public grounds and their three-year pins.

Margie Crane, Cindy Arthur and Suzanne Hoffman also were awarded swimming emblems.

Special guests at the June 3 ceremonial were the girls' teachers from Eugene Field School, Miss Louise Paulson and Mrs. Edith Nicolas. Other guests included the girls' parents and two Blue Bird groups from Field.

The awards were made by Mrs. Roy Hoffman, the group's leader, and Mrs. Richard Arthur, sponsor.

Girls in the group are Colleen Craig, Tina Herron, Lynette Krajian, Leslie Wheeler, Margie Crane, Cindy Arthur and Suzanne Hoffman.

and head master, Mr. Charles Downs. It's not just 'book learning' for Fred. In addition, he received his Varsity letters in Cross Country Track. He was captain of this league champion team. Also captain of the school's tennis team, Fred somehow found time to act as editor of the 1969 Yearbook. A student at the York School for the past four years, he attended on a scholarship obtained upon finish at Sierra Madre's Ascension School. Special guest speaker, the Rev. Dan Towler, chaplain of Cal State, also added his plaudits to Fred's accomplishments. (Rev. Towler is a local man, residing in Hastings Ranch.)

You might say that Fred comes by his interest and scholarly leanings quite naturally. Mr. and Mrs. Bruning are both great book lovers and always pursuing the study of some new, or old, subject of interest. Gail, Fred's sister, is likewise a good student. Employed as a Policewoman - Dispatcher for the City of Sierra Madre working full-time, she presently attends Cal State where as a senior she is working on her B.S. in Police Science. Gail already has two AA degrees from Pasadena City College, one in Police Science and the other in Humanities.

Books, education and higher learning are not Fred's only interests. He loves all kinds of sports and this past year has taken up fencing and golf. Anything to do with the out-of-doors appeal to him too, and this includes hiking.

The family has resided in Sierra Madre for the last 19 years; in fact Fred was born here 18 years ago last New Year's Day.

Accepted at Pomona College for entrance this fall, Fred wishes to become a lawyer and will enter as a pre-law student. Sierra Madre, always proud of her own, is doubly proud of a young man who has done so extremely well. He is a shining example of today's

Joins Ocean Study Program In Hawaii

Janet Ann Wood, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nat Wood, 1430 Tropical Ave., Pasadena (Hastings Ranch) has been chosen to participate in a special summer work program in Hawaii sponsored by the Oceanic Institute, Makapuu Pt., Oahu.

Miss Wood, who completes her freshman year at University of California at Berkeley this month, will join a few selected participants from the Mainland and Hawaii at the Oceanic Research Center, which also manages Sea Life Park and the Makai Undersea test range.

The oceanographic facility is 15 miles from Honolulu in one of the most beautiful settings in all Hawaii, says Miss Wood. The varied program includes training of porpoises, assisting in the building of deep sea submersibles, aiding in other undersea exploration activities at the Center, such as diver training, photography, modeling and technical seminars. The program concludes about September 1.

Participate In Program

A very colorful and impressive exposition of the Camp Fire Girls organization took place recently at the P.T.A. sponsored Youth Education Night at Eugene Field Elementary School.

Camp Fire Girls, under the able direction of Mrs. Roy Hoffman, participated in the program along with representatives from other youth organizations.

The youngest members of an inter-related cumulative program by which girls grow and learn to develop their identities, were the Blue Birds, who explained the meaning of the Blue Bird Wish.

Fourth grade Camp Fire Girls, attired in their vests and ceremonial gowns, interpreted the measured steps that are taken along the Camp Fire trail through the groups of achievements called Trail Seeker, Wood Gatherer, and Fire Maker, each with its own symbolism and ceremonial.

Large, simulated honor beads were placed in a totem pole by sixth grade Camp Fire Girls after explaining how the beads are earned through the Seven Crafts by moving from one accomplishment to another.

Assisting Mrs. Hoffman with various aspects of the program were the Mmes. Neil Devine, Robert Swain, James Niehaus, and Ted Will.

Other organizations taking part in the program were Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, Indian Guides, Indian Maidens, Girl Scouts and Brownies.

Graduates Join Stanford Alumni

Welcoming new Stanford graduates to the ranks of Southland alumni, the Stanford Junior Alumni of Southern California will sponsor a discotheque party Thursday, June 19 at 8:00 p.m. at P.J.'s in Hollywood.

The Junior Alumni organization includes all former Stanford students who have been out of school less than ten years. For the newcomers the party will come only a few days after they are graduated in commencement exercises on The Farm.

Among those working on the party committee with President Robert D. Hillman of Los Angeles and Mrs. Hillman are Messrs. and Mmes. Randolph K. Vahan, Steven Halsted, Thomas Malcolm, James Shekoyan and Sandra Hammer and Michael Browne.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Roger Mc Nitt at 283-9826.

Neighbors

The Rev. Spencer Edwards Jr. and Mrs. Edwards are traveling north this week to attend graduation exercises for their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Donald Graff. M'Liss is graduating from U.C. and Don is graduating from the Church Divinity School of the Pacific. Following graduation M'Liss and Don will be living in San Bernardino where Don will be curate at St. John's Episcopal Church.

Congratulations, and the best of luck! Another daughter, Megan, has received the honor of being elected student body president of Polytechnic High School where she will be a senior next year.

Letters To The Editor Important Remarks

Dear Editor:

The following is a copy of a letter sent by Supervisor Warren M. Dorn to the Governor.

Dear Ron:

I have asked the sponsor of last Wednesday night's meeting, held in the Sunland-Tujunga section of my district, to try and arrange another meeting so that I may present my views on tax reform.

I have made this request so as to correct the mistaken impression you may have given when you remarked during your speech that you and I do not agree on tax reform. You spoke at some length on your plan, and because it does involve some tax shifting, and even some property tax reduction, along with some new taxes, those listening may have felt that I am opposed to tax reform and/or property tax reduction.

As you well know, nothing could be further from the truth. I have championed the cause of tax reform and feel that the lack of action at the state level constitutes a great disservice to our over-burdened local property taxpayers. The main difference between your program and mine is that my plan reduces property taxes, and at the same time strengthens local home rule government, while yours could lead to the weakening and/or the very destruction of local government.

If such a meeting is arranged, I will send you a copy of my remarks for your further consideration.

After listening to your speech in Sunland-Tujunga, I am more convinced than ever that tax reform isn't the only kind of change needed in California. It seems more apparent than ever that the state's system of higher education is in dire need of immediate overhaul. It was with grievous concern that I listened to your remarks about the University of California at Berkeley and the "People's Park" fiasco. I seemed a negative tirade against the university and its people, without constructive suggestions for improvement.

While it is mandatory to maintain "law and order" where there is violence, it is just as essential that the root causes of such violence be corrected. Illegal acts or violence cannot be tolerated. By the same token, mere suppression, clumsy administration, and lack of action to better our university system leaves much to be desired.

As a first step toward the vitally necessary overhaul of our university system and, yes, our state government too, I urge you to bring them closer to the people by opening all of the meetings of state governmental agencies to the public and the news media. The state's business and the people's right to know has been thwarted and denied too long.

This needed change becomes more urgent as the state's tax supported higher educational system becomes more and more cluttered and bogged down with political activity from all sides and extremes.

I therefore urge that reconsideration be given to legislation which would provide the very beneficial and effective provisions of the Brown Act, prohibiting secret meetings, to all state governmental agencies, just as it does so successfully to city, county, and other local jurisdictions. It seems just as important to me that the meetings of the Board of Regents be opened to the press and public as it is for the hundreds of local school boards throughout the state. It is also as important for the legislature and its committees and commissions to conduct their business in public as it is for the fifty

With Our TEENS

A lot was accomplished at our last meeting on June 3. First of all we had four new members who were:
Bill Huested, Bob Wagner,
Glen Lambdin and Mike Scharf.

Margie Grippi brought in her resignation letter so now Carol Hathaway will take her place; however, she was absent at the last meeting so Dominique Paschal presided.

We're really getting busy for the Fourth of July. We're going to enter a decorated truck in the parade in which the Teen Club members will ride in the back and the newly elected Teen Council on the hood. At the carnival afterward we'll have a cotton candy booth.
That night is our street dance at Kersting Court.
The admission is free and teens between the ages of 13 and 19 are invited.

The Constitution and By-Laws Committee met and made the changes in our constitution that were necessary.

Signups were taken for the 1969 Battle of the Bands.
Only a limited number of people can go. It costs $1.50 and the money has to be in by June 23. You can get the tickets at the Recreation Department.

Elections for Teen Council will be Monday and Tuesday, June 16 and 17.
Club members must have their card to vote. Voting will take place between 3 and 5 in the afternoon and 6 and 8 in the evening.
Membership cards cost $1.
They are needed, also, to participate in Teen Club activities.

Sierra Madre Fire Call Series

Again, and the second in the series your volunteer Firefighters were given the alarm at 2:47 p.m. Thursday to Mira Monte, between Auburn and Baldwin, what later proved to be about 80 Mira Monte where a car was reported to be afire.

Engine 424 arrived at the scene in 2 minutes and 26 seconds to find that a car owned by Don Molzen Auto Body, of 1265 E. Main St., Pasadena, and loaned to Imogene Everhart of 1030
Pepper Hill Road backfired in the carburetor and set the fuel line, motor mounts, air cleaner and parts of the ignition wiring afire, and consequently damaged the paint on half of the hood of the automobile. The booster line of 424 and its extinguishers put out the fire.

Fire Chief Charles Brown estimated the damage at $80. Thirteen regular Firefighters answered the alarm and were released to return to the station at 3:08. Engine 423 was on standby and trucks 422 and 421 and car 426 responded to the alarm.

Again, and the third in the series your volunteer Firefighters received the alarm at 9:59 p.m. Thursday. This time Engine 424 responded to the call in 3 minutes 10 seconds to the Sierra Madre School, where upon arrival, it was found that the trash gondola on Auburn Avenue was in full involvement.

Upon arrival it was found that the janitor of the building was present with fire extinguisher; both booster lines were used from the engine and with approximately 75 gallons of water the fire was extinguished and the gondola cooled.

Twenty-one regular Firefighters answered the call, with damage declared as nil
by Fire Chief Charles Brown, who released the men and equipment at 10:35 to return to the station and secure for the next alarm. Engine 423 was on standby, with Truck 421 and car 426 responding to the alarm. Fire Chief Brown placed the cause of the fire as "suspicious" with investigation called for during the daylight.

Again, and the fourth in a series for the week, your Volunteer Firefighters were called in to action by the alarm at 8:20 a.m. Saturday morning to 70 West Mira Monte to the home of Shel-da Corliss.

Engine 424 arrived in 2 minutes and 15 seconds to find that a mattress in the bedroom was afire. Firefighters instantly removed the mattress from the home to the driveway and extinguished it with the booster line. The fire was contained in the mattress and did damage to a heating pad, being used, Chief Charles Brown set the damage at $50.

Fifteen Regular Firefighters answered the alarm and were released by Chief Charles Brown at 8:56 to return to the station and prepare the equipment for the next call, before returning the firefighters cleared out the smoke with a smoke ejector and used the deodorizer to clear out the smoke smell from the home.

PERSONALS

PERSONALS are $1.25, check or cash enclosed. The Staff does not compose personals, unless in answer to one directed to them.
Personals which obviously indicate collusion will be withheld

Letters To the Editor . . .

Dear Editor:

A reminder that you may wish to do a story on the temporary one-cent hike in the gasoline tax rate effective Sunday, June 1.

The tax for gasoline and diesel fuel goes to eight cents a gallon at that time. It remains in effect through November 30, 1969, unless the governor restores the seven-cent rate by proclamation before then.

The increase is contained in Assembly Bill 76, authored by Assemblyman Pauline Davis and others. It could raise $45 million to repair public property damaged or destroyed by last winter's floods and storms. However, the exact amount will be determined by the Department of Public Works. Estimates are still being made.

Gasoline and diesel fuel dealers are not required to pay a tax on fuel in storage on June 1, according to the State Board of Equalization.

From the

FIRE SIDE

By One of the Boys

Actually without any fires, it doesn't leave too much to write about. You see activity causes more activity, and then you have a victim to exploit, but as usually happens we are on one of those 10-20 day dry spells, and half the firefighters have forgotten what the alarm sounds like.

—SMVFD—

Of course over the Memorial Day long weekend half of the firefighters were out of town on vacation, and the other half stayed home; NOT to keep the home fires burning, but to keep the home fires from burning.

—SMVFD—

It was the painful duty of Captain Hall to be the stay at home Captain, and I will certainly say that he was like an "old mother with a bunch of new chicks": he spent most of the day either down at the police station ready to help the dispatcher send out the alarm, or setting at home in front of the Plectron radio; just in case it gave out with its beep, beep, beep.

—SMVFD—

Course Taxpayers and homeowners should be proud of their department, proud, yet relieved that they have a group of conscientious boys that have their welfare at heart. And the boys do not take this weekend duty lightly. They are a dedicated bunch, and when their turn comes up to stay at home, they do it willingly and with desire.

—SMVFD—

Another thing that I think the Taxpayer and Homeowner should know and that is your Volunteer Fire Department is the best bargain that you have for your tax dollars. This year when the call went out for budget figures from the Department Heads, Chief Charles Brown did not set down and figure up all the available items and come in with a $150,000 budget, although if he did, it would have been in line with other cities of our size.

—SMVFD—

In fact Chief Brown sat down and figured out just what he could possibly get along with, and eliminated many items that were needed, but were not absolutely necessary. For both the Fire Suppression and Fire Prevention, Chief Brown came in with a budget of $38,500, and although the Council itself stated that all operation was up at least 12c on the $100 valuation, Chief Brown came in with a reduction in his budget of $3,500.

—SMVFD—

Now when you get down to the nitty gritty and the Fire Department including Fire Prevention has two full time employees and is eligible for 30 firefighters. They have five pieces of equipment that they must maintain and keep up the repairs for. Now I ask you where in the world could you possibly get 30 men to be on duty 24-hours a day, and equipment valued at some $100,000 kept in tip top condition for the amount of $38,500. On the tax rate this will be in the neighborhood of about 15c per $100 valuation.

—SMVFD—

Of course, right away you will say, but the Library operates on 30c, the Parks and Recreation last year operated on 22c, and the General Fund, which includes the Police and the general administration of streets and so forth operate on $1.

—SMVFD—

But here I will have to call your attention to one thing. Your Volunteer Fire Department has absolutely no revenues to help offset its expenses. Where Police need $238,000 to operate on, the Parks and Recreation about $182,000 they count

United Cerebral Palsy Must Have Funds; May Turn Aside Children

Curtailment of training facilities in the past four years in the Long Beach, Van Nuys and Baldwin Park areas were cited as "indicators of further distress among handicapped children unless the public will prove that it really cares." Harris Sherline, president of United Cerebral Palsy, a non-profit health agency which has Social Service Department approval for fund raising, said the potential cost in tax dollars when training is denied the cerebral palsied will far exceed the non-existent gift monies. He pointed out that United Cerebral Palsy has had to curtail some of its facilities for training the handicapped, and that children have been turned aside.

"Human misery will increase several fold," said Sherline, president of a Sherman Oaks computer sharing firm.

"The way the public responds to United Cerebral Palsy mail appeals and the fervor with which volunteers complete their person-to-person calls, these will decide the future for children who will become tomorrow's handicapped adults."

But, if the response is generous, United Cerebral Palsy plans to reduce the minimum age to 12 months for enrolling children victims in training programs.

Describing the plight of

Senior Citizens June Outings

Senior citizens of Los Angeles County will be honored June 11 and 12 at Japanese Village and Deer Park and at Movieland Wax Museum in Buena Park.

The two dates have been designated Senior Citizens' Day at the facilities and special prices will be in effect for all persons belonging to Senior Citizens organizations.

The event is being coordinated by the Los Angeles City Department of Recreation and Parks, Los Angeles County Department of Parks and Recreation, and Senior Citizens Association of Los Angeles County.

Alpha Omicron Pi To Hold 'Fiesta' Party

Alpha Omicron Pi officers will be honored along with members and out-of-town guests at a "Fiesta Fantastic" party on Thursday, June 19, at the Pasadena home of Mrs. Charles Koch, 5-7:30 p.m. Special guests will include Mrs. J. Rodney Harris of Atlanta, Georgia, International president, and members of her executive board.

The pre-convention affair is sponsored by the Pasadena Alumnae Club with Charles Koch of Pasadena as chairman. She is being assisted by Mrs. Arnold Soderberg, Pasadena, and Mrs. Richard J. Des Jardins, Jr., of Arcadia. Mrs. Aileen Ziegler, president of Pasadena Alumnae Chapter will welcome guests.

Alpha Omicron Pi, international fraternity for women, was founded in 1898 at Barnard College, Columbia University. Collegiate and alumnae chapters have a total membership of 42,000.

More than 500 members of Alpha Omicron Pi from the United States and Canada will arrive in Los Angeles June 19th for their 48th biennial convention, June 20 through 26 at the Ambassador Hotel. The Pasadena Alumnae Chapter is convention hostess at the June 24th dinner. Adapting the Fiesta Fantastic theme, they have assembled cookbooks of favorite Mexican dishes, fantastic pinatas for centerpieces and Mexican pottery as mementos for each delegate. Final dinner of the convention will be the traditional Rose Banquet when the hotel will be decked with red and white colors and fresh red roses, the official flower of the fraternity.

The Alpha Omicron Pi officers will arrive on June 19 for the pre-convention meetings and last minute plans.

Serving as hostesses are Mrs. Homer C. Abbey, Mrs. Frank B. Mosher, Mrs. J. F. Haines and Miss Ruby Charlton, Pasadena; Mrs. Donald R. Harrison, Altadena; Mrs. Lewis Allen, Arcadia; Mrs. F. G. Wheeler, Jr., South Pasadena, and Mrs. Phillip G. Smith, San Marino.

Marilyn Coombes will have to do some 'quicker than the eye' type manipulations this week. She arrived home June 11 from San Diego State with barely enough time to say hello to her parents, Harold and Jean Coombes and rest of family, before she leaves for Europe on June 14. She and a small group of fellow students from San Diego State will be touring Europe for five weeks 'a la native'—this is all on their own and not on a pre-arranged tour with guide and a.l. Lots of luck and have a wonderful time!

Sierra Madre COMMUNITY HOSPITAL

Best wishes for a speedy recovery go to Sierra Madre residents that have been patients in Sierra Madre Community Hospital this past week. They are Mary Highfield, Frank Chavarria and Rae Albright. Mrs. Susy Berdinner is home after her stay and she is appreciative of the many cards and good wishes from her friends and would like them to know she is getting along well.

Newest Sierra Madre residents born at the hospital are Diane Marie Havery and Larry Gene Wieland. Larry, the fine son of Larry and Mary Wieland was born on May 25th at 8:25 a.m., weighed 9 lbs. 1 1/2 oz. and was 20 ins. long. Diane is a pretty dark haired baby, the daughter of Howard and Barbara Havery, born on June 3rd at 10:59 a.m. and weighed 5 lbs. 12 oz. Diane also has a sister, 2 years old. Congratulations to both families.

Ranch Nursery School Board

The Hastings Ranch Nursery School Board finished up an activity filled year with an installation luncheon last week at a nearby restaurant honoring both the outgoing and incoming Board of Directors and staff members.

Honoring the retiring president, Mrs. Alan Wayne, for her year's service was the newly elected president, Mrs. Peter Anderson, who presented Mrs. Wayne with a lovely silver bowl. Other new board members for the coming year are: Mrs. Gerry Ault, Mrs. Albert Kouba, Mrs. Leland Blum, Mrs. Martin Meeker, and Mrs. Robert Whaley. Also, Mrs. James Hall, Mrs. Donald Meyer, Mrs. John Russell, Mrs. Dennis Smith, Mrs. Joe Smith and Mrs. James Tibbot.

The annual end-of-the-year picnic, under the management of Lois Russell, family activities chairman, will be held at Hamilton Park and promises to be a fun-filled day with plenty of ice cream and punch for nursery school students and their families.

Bridge lessons are expected to be continued next year.

William J. Helko Awarded Medal For Heroism

Specialist Four William J. Helko, son of Mrs. Lorraine M. Helko, 187 Mountain Trail, received the Army Commendation Medal May 2 at Camp Gorvad, Vietnam. Spec. 4 Helko received the award for heroism in action while engaged in ground operations against a hostile force in Vietnam.

He is a heavy-equipment mechanic in Headquarters Company, 8th Engineer Battalion, 1st Cavalry Division (Airmobile).

Fire Side

their revenue and hence do call for less from the Taxpayer.

— SMVFD — In other words, if the Fire Department could sell Fire Permits, they could have licenses to sell to each homeowner for Fire Protection, and charged for Fires they would probably come up with a surplus of money instead of costing the Taxpayer $38,500.

— SMVFD — Actually if your Fire Department operated on the same basis as other departments in the San Gabriel Valley, in other words if their tax rate to the Taxpayer was the same as other cities, then the Fire Department would receive as their budget about $210,000 a year, and the service would be relatively the same.

— SMVFD — So you see Chief Charles Brown and his crew of 30 men are proud of what they do for the community, it is through their efforts and low cost that you can have such things as a nice library, a swimming pool, a community center and a first class Police Department, and this makes all the boys happy that they are able to offer this type of service to the community.

— SMVFD — Never under estimate your Sierra Madre Volunteer Firefighters, they are not in there for the money, they are in there wholeheartedly all the way for the Service that they can give. If they ever ask for anything, you can rest assured they need it, and they need it bad, or you would never hear anything about it.

— SMVFD — Graduation is fast approaching, and when it does your department will branch into a new field of "Fire Rescue." The equipment is available on the Engines, and the know-how will soon be had by the men attending college... Watch 'em move out with the mostest for the leastest.

New Residents During May

Among those taking up new residents or changing addresses during May were: Dr. Jerry E. Ault, 181 Colony Dr.; Andrew J. Newcomers Hold Install Officers For New Year

New officers for the Arcadia-Sierra Madre Newcomers were installed at a luncheon meeting on Tuesday, June 10, at 11:30 a.m., at a restaurant in Pasadena.

Officiating at the ceremony was past-president Mrs. Ed Ferguson. Retiring president, Mrs. Henry Vincent, presented the gavel to the incoming president, Mrs. Robert Carlson.

Other elected officers installed were: Mrs. David Sheldon, first vice president; Mrs. Robert LeFevre, second vice president; Mrs. Lowell Baskins, treasurer; Mrs. Richard Hollenbeck, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. James Palmisano, recording secretary.

The couples bowling group will have a banquet on June 13 at a restaurant in Pasadena.

A joint board meeting of the retiring and incoming officers for the new year will be held on Tuesday, June 24 at the home of Mrs. Robert LeFevre in Arcadia.

The month of May is a pretty full month for the Hugh (Veronica) Warden household. May 23 was Veronica's birthday, then May 28 was daughter's Christine's 21st birthday and on May 24, the Warden's celebrated twenty-four years of marriage. Congratulations all the way around!

— ☆ — Mrs. Grace Adams returned to Los Altos, Tuesday, June 3, after spending a pleasant week visiting her sister, Mrs. Bertha Billings of 398 West Sierra Madre Blvd.

Further Reforms Needed

Supervisor Dorn Disagrees With Reagan Tax Reforms

Gov. Reagan's tax reform program has some good features — particularly regarding aid to education — but it fails to provide state funds for state-federally dictated services the county must provide, Supervisor Warren Dorn declared recently.

"Furthermore, it places restrictions on local government, would weaken said government and possibly even lead to a regional type government conducted by the state, thus resulting in the death of home rule," said Dorn.

He pointed out that the governor's program also calls for establishment of a state property tax, which would be collected by the state.

"This of course, would be a costly duplication of services because counties now collect property taxes."

Dorn said he supports Assembly Bill 1884 (Bagley, R-Marin), taken from the Flournoy Commission recommendations because "it offers true tax reform" and strengthens home rule government in the following respects:

In addition to homeowners' property tax exemption, certain sales tax extensions and the benefits of state withholding of income tax, it directly assists local government in three major areas of critical need.

1 — It would give to the counties $188 million to relieve local property tax expenditures for welfare — an assistance program over which the county has no control and which is directed and dictated by state and federal governments.

2 — It would provide $150 million to cities and counties for police departments and sheriff's departments to combat crime and strengthen law enforcement services.

3 — It would give $130 million to the schools through state reimbursement for the homeowners' property tax.

Dorn said he also is pursuing his three-point proposed constitutional amendment to aid taxpayers.

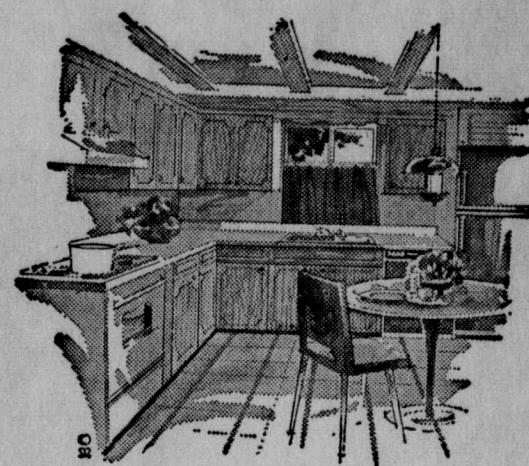

It would: 1 — Require the state government to fund 50 percent of the cost of local school district programs, thereby lifting a burden from property owners.

2 — It would make it "impossible" to use property tax revenues for funding of welfare programs.

3 — It would provide that mandatory local health and safety capital improvement bond issues require the same percentage of voter approval as do state bond issues. This would include hospitals, clinics, law enforcement facilities, jails, fire stations.

Under state law, passage of local bond issues requires 66 and two-third percentage approval while state issues need only 50 percent approval.

Sunday Sermon: 'Who's In Charge Around Here?'

"Who's In Charge Around Here?" is the sermon title by Rev. Richard J. Anderson of Sierra Madre Congregational Church, 170 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., Sunday, June 15.

In the minds of some people, traditional authority is out of date. Old standards, like old fashions are being discarded simply because they are not new. Authority on any level is coming under attack. The authority of school administrators, the authority of state and national governments, the authority of churches, are all being challenged.

In the minds of some people, there will be no peace in our troubled world until all authority is toppled and the established governments and institutions are gone.

Who is in charge around here? If morals are no longer binding; if laws are no longer recognized because the governments which passed them are considered passe; if parents are no longer respected because they were born in the wrong generation; then who is the final authority?

When all is said and done, we all know one thing to be true. If there is a God, a Creator, then He is in charge. The sooner we recognize Him the sooner peace will come to the hearts of men.

Pancake Breakfast

Take for the breakfast, at $1.00 for adults and 50¢ for children under 12.

Remember all of the proceeds from this breakfast will go to some worthy project in Sierra Madre for the enjoyment of children. Past years the Kiwanians placed picnic tables in Sierra Vista Park. Another year play equipment for Tyler Park, and cash donations for Bailey Canyon Park. Here is your chance to do double duty with your dollars, and in addition those attending the breakfast may receive 10 per cent off on purchases from participating merchants.

Ascension Sisters Leave City of Sierra Madre

Twenty years of dedicated loving service to the children of Ascension Parish School will come to an end this week when the Sisters of St. Mary leave Sierra Madre. Principal, Sister Vlasta Mari will be returning to Chicago to assume the duties of Superior of St. Mary's Home for Children there, while Sisters Virginia Constance and Mary Paula will return to the mother convent in Kenosha, Wisconsin.

Sister Virginia Constance came to Sierra Madre with the original group of nuns in 1949 to take over teaching duties at the school and has seen two generations of children pass through her kindergarten; among them Laurie Scalzo, Karen Mueller, Debra, Theodore and Katherine Dammeyer.

Sister Mary Paula, a graduate of SMU, Texas, has been with the school for 13 years and will be sadly missed by 3rd and 4th grade students. Over 200 students and friends attended the special mass of thanksgiving and reception honoring the Sisters on Sunday. A special stained glass window bearing the motto: Beati Mundo Corde — Blessed Are the Pure in Heart, as a lasting memento of their dedication within the church and hand lettered tributes on parchment will hang in the school office and kindergarten rooms as lasting reminders of their service.

Mrs. Myrtle Johnson, retiring 1st and 2nd grade teacher was also honored at the reception and presented with a gold and pearl pin by the children of the school all of whom personally earned their individual contributions to this gift. Mrs. Johnson may be assured of many small visitors as she retires to her hillside Sierra Madre home.

Rev. William Worstall will assume the duties of headmaster of the school. He holds a Masters degree in Education from the University of Florida, was headmaster of Grace Chapel Parish School in Jacksonville for several years and

Father's Day At Faith Lutheran

Father's Day will be observed in the 10:30 Sunday morning worship service of Faith Lutheran Church, 845 Hastings Ranch Drive, Pasadena, with a special address by the pastor. Basing his remarks upon I Samuel 3:10-14, the Rev. Armin Hesse will speak of the father's responsibilities to children and home, titling his address, "The Case of Paternal Responsibility."

On Friday afternoon of this week the youth will meet on the church parking lot at 4:30 where they will board a bus and travel to ABC Studios in Burbank. A tour of the studios will highlight the trip.

Other activities of the week include Women's Christian Service Guild at 7:45 on Monday evening, Senior Choir and Church Membership Class at 8:00 on Thursday evening.

St. Rita's Sisters Host Tea Tuesday

The Sisters of St. Rita's School in Sierra Madre, hosted a tea in the church hall on Tuesday afternoon, June 3, to honor all Room Mothers, their co-workers, teacher assistants and playground surveillants.

Mrs. John Tahl was chairman of the tea assisted by Mrs. Herbert Nader, Mrs. Martin Yurich and Mrs. Charles Norman.

Sister Corinne, principal, thanked all the mothers for their wonderful assistance throughout the school year and presented each with a token gift.

Sisters, teachers and mothers mingled and had an enjoyable afternoon.

served on the Accreditation Committee of the Florida Episcopal Schools Association. Plans for the expansion of the school are currently underway.

Application for a license for a Day Care Center has been made and the purchase of two busses to better serve surrounding communities of Arcadia, Monrovia, Altadena and Pasadena, will be made this summer.

eight Boards of Supervisors and their local commissions and agencies.

I have found that what the people aren't "up on," they are usually down on. State government, conducted behind closed doors in secret meetings by the few in privacy, breeds distrust and confusion, if not contempt. I feel certain that meaningful reforms in all areas of state government would follow if you return state government to the people through this proven means.

You may be sure that I will continue my efforts to bring about these much needed improvements. I shall also continue my fight to strengthen local government through fair and equitable tax reform.

Dear Editor:

With regards to the one door transportable classrooms purchased by the Pasadena Unified School District. Several years ago approximately 20 transportables (at P.H.S., Muir and other sites) were built for the District in a four month period for less than $10 per square foot.

These classrooms had two doors and many more windows. They were designed by a local architectural firm and built on the school site by local contractors and supplied by local tradesmen. The exterior colors matched the existing school colors. They did not have the luxury of refrigerated air conditioning which even the permanent buildings at Pasadena High School do now enjoy. It seems that a maximum of three months time is saved by buying these expensive one door refrigerated boxes over the on-site constructed type.

Parents and students waited through the bond legal hassle for years. I think we have the patience to wait a few months for quality and safety for our children, economy for our taxpayers, and work for our local architects, contractors and tradesmen.

Lesson-Sermon

For Sun., June 15

"God the Preserver of Man" is the subject of this week's Bible Lesson-Sermon which will be heard Sunday in all Christian Science churches.

"The Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto His heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever." This verse from II Timothy is the Golden Text. A correlative passage, from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, explains: "The divine Mind that made man maintains His own image and likeness."

Not For Fishing

Parks and Recreation Director Richard Burton, the State Department of Fish and Game is providing two to three thousand FINGERLING trout for stocking in the Little Santa Anita Canyon. Fingerling trout are just what the word indicates, about the size of your little finger.

The fingerlings were delivered to Sierra Madre on Sunday, June 8th and transported to the stocking locations by the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team. So put away your rods, nets and flies, this is not the time for fishing in Little Santa Anita.

Car Accidents

celerator. I was probably going fifteen miles per hour." Miss Danowsky sustained pelvic and right leg injuries and was taken to St. Luke Hospital. The girl walking with her was not hit.

Birthday Party

For Mrs. Carr

On June 5, Mrs. Estella R. Carr, long a resident of Sierra Madre, celebrated her birthday. It has not been determined whether she was 99 or 100. Incapacitated only to the extent that she cannot walk. Mrs. Carr enjoys both indoor and outdoor activities — especially singing. Her soprano voice is still remarkably strong. Often she participates in group discussion at Parkwood Convalescent Hospital where she now makes her home.

Other residents of Parkwood, two of them in their nineties, planned a birthday party for Mrs. Carr. They were joined by her relatives and friends in showering her with cards and gifts.

Before her marriage Mrs. Carr taught school in Illinois and South Dakota. She has happy memories of the Black Hills where she met her husband, Robert Carr, author of Black Hills Balads. For many years Mr. Carr was a staff writer for the Los Angeles Times. Mrs. Carr was his secretary. They were acquainted with Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks and other Hollywood stars of the early days.

The Carrs first moved to Sierra Madre nearly sixty years ago. For a while they divided their time between Sierra Madre and the desert near Palm Springs.

Friends of Mrs. Carr are invited to visit with her at Parkwood. She enjoys having old friends drop in.

The end of life will find most of us with a lot of business that should have been attended to several years earlier.

Sermon: 'Steps To Personal Achievement'

"Steps to Personal Achievement" is the title of the lesson sermon to be given by Margaret M. Stevens, Minister of The Santa Anita Church, 226 West Colorado Boulevard, Arcadia on Sunday, June 15 at 11 a.m. All are welcome to attend our church and worship with us in an atmosphere of peace. Infant and child care is provided.

Children from pre-school through seventh grade go to graded classes after a fifteen minute worship service in the sanctuary at 11 a.m. Dedicated teachers lead these graded classes. The young adults hold their meetings on Sunday evenings at 7 p.m.

A class in successful living is led by Rev. Stevens every Thursday at 11 a.m. There is a time for prayer requests and the public is cordially invited to attend. There is always a project of service or an activity to which all are invited to stay to participate after the class so why not plan to stay and enjoy a time of fellowship.

Further information may be obtained by calling 446-8206.

Applications are available for The Ethel Barnhart School 1969-70 school year from kindergarten through eighth grade. Summer school is from August 4 through August 29.

Out of the Cobwebs

Sixty Years Ago:

June 4, 1909

Prof. C. M. Abbott, director of the Smithsonian astrophysical observatory, left Washington early this week for Mt. Wilson, where he will begin his summer's work. The intensity of the sun's rays and the effect of variations in the atmosphere will receive most of his attention.

Veterans of the Civil war who reside in Sierra Madre were delightfully entertained Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Marcus W. Capps at their home on Esperanza avenue. The fraternal spirit of the camp-fire was in evidence and the occasion was a memorable one for all those present.

A grim tragedy of the mountains was revealed last Monday afternoon when school boys rambling in the Big Santa Anita canyon discovered the dead body of a man at the foot of a precipice. Careful investigation failed to reveal the identity of the victim of the tragedy and the mystery may never be solved.

One of the projects now under consideration by the city trustees and which would be an important link in our system of municipal improvements is a storm water ditch to carry the water which flows from the Bailey or Reid canyon, striking Grand View avenue a short distance west of Adams Street.

Norman Jensen is reported to be recovering nicely after his siege of typhoid fever.

Mrs. Mary Russell of Hollywood was a guest on Sunday of Mrs. Elizabeth Borglum. Mrs. Russell, with her husband, Senator Russell of Iowa, and her daughter, Helen, were known to many Sierra Madre people, having resided at Mrs. Ferry's for some time a number of years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Tarr are the happy parents of another son, who arrived Monday morning. The family will return to their Ocean Park cottage, whence Mr. Tarr and the boys were compelled to come to Sierra.

Seventeen year old Julie Walters, daughter of James and Carmen Walters, will be leaving for 'South of the Border' as soon after school is out as possible. She has been invited to spend the summer in Mexico City and Acapulco with her school mate and the school mate's family. This will be Julie's second summer with the family. However this year the two girls will have a part time job, either at a Boutique in Mexico City or in one of Julie's host's hotel gift shops in Acapulco. Doesn't that sound exciting? A marvelous opportunity with the added benefit of being educational as well as lots of fun.

NOTRE DAME PRESIDENT SETS EXAMPLE FOR NATION'S UNIVERSITIES' REACTION

Dear Editor and

Notre Dame Faculty and Students:

This letter has been on my mind for weeks. It is both time and overtime that it be written. I have outlined the core of it to the Student Life Council, have discussed the text with the Chairman of the Board of Trustees, the Vice Presidents Council, all the Deans of the University, and the Chairmen of the Faculty Senate and the Student Life Council. This letter does not relate directly to what happened here last weekend, although those events made it seem even more necessary to get this letter written. I have tried to write calmly, in the wee hours of the morning when at last there is quiet and pause for reflection.

My hope is that these ideas will have deep personal resonances in our own community, although the central problem they address exists everywhere in the university world today and, by instant communication, feeds upon itself. It is not enough to label it the alienation of youth from our society. God knows there is enough and more than enough in our often non-glorious civilization to be alienated from, be you young, middleaged, or old. The central problem to me is what we do about it and in what manner, if we are interested in healing rather than destroying our world. Youth especially has much to offer — idealism, generosity, dedication, and service. The last thing a shaken society needs is more shaking. The last thing a noisy turbulent, and disintegrating community needs is more noise, turbulence, and disintegration. Understanding and analysis of social ills cannot be conducted in a boiler factory. Compassion has a quiet way of service. Complicated social mechanisms, out-of-joint, are not adjusted with sledge hammers.

The university cannot cure all our ills today, but it can make a valiant beginning by bringing all its intellectual and moral powers to bear upon them; all the idealism and generosity of its young people, all the wisdom and intelligence of its oldsters, all the expertise and competence of those who are in their middle years. But it must do all this as a university does, within its proper style and capability, no longer an ivory tower, but not the Red Cross either.

Now to the heart of my message. You recall my letter of November 25, 1968. It was written after an incident, or happening if you will. It seemed best to me at the time not to waste time in personal recriminations or heavy-handed discipline, but to profit from the occasion to invite this whole University community, especially its central Councils of faculty, administration, and students, to declare themselves and to state their convictions regarding protests that were peaceful and those that threatened the life of the community by disrupting the normal operations of the University and infringing upon the rights of others.

I now have statements from the Academic Council, the Faculty Senate, the Student Life Council, some College Councils, the Alumni Board, and a whole spate of letters from individual faculty members and a few students. Some of these are enclosed in this letter. In general, the reaction was practically unanimous that this community recognizes the validity of protest in our day — sometimes even the necessity — regarding the current burning issues of our society: war and peace, especially Vietnam; civil rights, especially of minority groups; the stance of the University vis-a-vis moral issues of great public concern; the operation of the University as university. There was also practical unanimity that the University could not continue to exist as an open society, dedicated to the discussion of all issues of importance, if protests were of such a nature that the normal operations of the University were in any way impeded, or if the rights of any member of this community were abrogated, peacefully or non-peacefully. I believe that I now have a clear mandate from this University community to see that: 1) our lines of communication between all segments of the community are kept as open as possible, with all legitimate means of com-be charged with trespassing and disturbing the peace on private property and treated accordingly by the law. The judgment regarding the impeding of normal University operations or the violation of the rights of other members of the community will be made by the Dean of Students. Recourse for certification of this fact for students so accused is to the tri-partite Disciplinary Board established by the Student Life Council. Faculty members have recourse to the procedures outlined in the Faculty Manual. Judgment of the matter will be delivered within five days following the fact, for justice deferred is justice denied to all concerned.

After notification of suspension, or trespass in the case of non-community members, if there is not ther within five minutes a movement to cease and de-

There seems to be a current myth that university members are not responsible to the law, and that somehow the law is the enemy, particularly those who society has constituted to uphold. —Please turn to Page 11

Notre Dame President Sets Example For Nation's Universities

hold and enforce the law. I would like to insist here that all of us are responsible to the duly constituted laws of this University community and to all of the laws of the land. There is no other guarantee of civilization versus the jungle or mob rule, here or elsewhere.

If someone invades your home, do you dialogue with him or call the law? With-out the law, the university is a sitting duck for any small group from outside or inside that wishes to destroy it, to incapacitate it, to terrorize it at whim. The argument goes — or has gone — invoke the law and you lose the university community. My only response is that without the law you may well lose the university — and beyond that — the larger society that supports it and that is most deeply wounded when law is no longer respected, bringing an end of everyone's most cherished rights.

I have studied at some length the new politics of confrontation. The rhythm is simple: 1) find a cause, any cause, silly or not; 2) in the name of the cause, get a few determined people to abuse the rights and privileges of the community so as to force a confrontation at any cost of boorishness or incivility; 3) once this has occurred, justified or not, orderly or not, yell police brutality — if it does not happen, provoke it by foul language, physical abuse, whatever, and then count on a larger measure of sympathy from the up-to-now apathetic or passive members of the community. Then call for amnesty, the head of the president on a platter, the complete submission to any and all demands. One beleaguered president has said that these people want to be martyrs thrown to toothless lions. He added, "Who wants to dialogue when they are going for the jugular vein?"

So it has gone, and it is generally well orchestrated. Again, my only question: must it be so? Must universities be subjected, willy-nilly, to such intimidations and victimization whatever their good will in the matter? Somewhere a stand must be made.

I only ask that when the stand is made necessary by those who would destroy the community and all its basic yearning for great and calm educational opportunity, let them carry the blame and the penalty. No one wants the forces of law on this or any other campus, but if some necessitate it, as a last and dismal alternative to anarchy and mob tyranny, let them shoulder the blame instead of receiving the sympathy of a community they would hold at bay. The only alternative I can imagine is turning the majority of the community loose on them, and then you have two mobs, I know of no one who would opt for this alternative — always lurking in the wings. We can have a thousand resolutions as to what kind of a society we want, but when lawlessness is afoot, and all authority is flouted, faculty, administration, and student, then we invoke the normal societal forces of law or we allow the university to die beneath our hapless and hopeless gaze. I have no intention of presiding over such a spectacle: too many people have given too much of themselves and their lives to this University to let this happen here. Without being melodramatic, if this conviction makes this my last will and testament to Notre Dame, so be it.

May I now say in all sincerity that I never want to see any student expelled from this community because, in many ways, this is always an educative failure. Even so, I must likewise be committed to the survival of the University community as one of man's best hopes in these troubled times. I know of no other way of insuring both ends than to say of every member of this community, faculty and students, that we are all ready and prepared and anxious to respond to every intellectual and moral concern in the world today, in every way proper to the University. At the same time, we cannot allow a small minority to impose their will on the majority who have spoken regarding the University's style of life; we cannot allow a few to substitute force of any kind for persuasion to accept their personal idea of what is right or proper. We only insist on the rights of all, minority and majority, the climate of civility and rationality, and a preponderant moral abhorrence of violence or inhuman forms of persuasion that violate our style of life and the nature of the University. It is, unfortunately, possible to cut oneself off from this community, even though the vast majority of our members would regret seeing it happen. However, should this occur, the community as a whole has indicated that it will vote and stand for the maintenance of this community's deepest values, since this is the price we all pay for the survival of the University community in the face of anyone and everyone who would destroy or denature it today, for whatever purposes.

May I now confess that since last November I have been bombarded mightily by the hawks and the doves — almost equally. I have resisted both and continue to recognize the right to protest — through every legitimate channel — and to resist as well those who would unthinkingly trifle with the survival of the University as one of the few open societies left to mankind today. There is no divine assurance that the University will survive as we have known and cherished it — but we do commit ourselves to make the effort and contend in this community, in this place, to uphold the efforts that you have inspired by your clear expression of community concern. Thanks to all who have declared themselves, even to those who have slightly disagreed, but are substantially concerned as well.

As long as the great majority of this community is concerned and involved in maintaining what it believes deeply to be its identity and commitment, no force within it, however determined or organized, can really destroy it. If any community as a whole does not believe this, or is not committed to it, it does not deserve to survive and it probably will not. I hope we will. To this, I commit myself with the presumption that the great majority of you are with me in this concern and commitment. I truly believe that we are about to witness a revulsion on the part of legislatures, state and national, benefactors, parents, alumni, and the general public for much that is happening in higher education today. If I read the signs of the times correctly, this may well lead to a suppression of the liberty and autonomy that are the lifeblood of a university community. It may well lead to a rebirth of fascism, unless we ourselves are ready to take a stand for what is right for us. History is not consoling in this regard. We rule ourselves or others rule us, in a way that destroys the university as we have known and loved it.

—T. M. Hesburgh, C.S.C. President

Richard and Nancy Wizenick of 217 West Orange Grove just returned from a vacation to the Greenbay, Wisconsin where they visited with Nancy's parents Mr. and Mrs. Ora Cahoon. Still coolish in that part of the country with spring just beginning. The Wizenicks traveled up to Door County Peninsula where they saw the cherry trees in bloom. Nancy's brother and his family were very pleased with the Chesapeake Bay Retriever the Wizenicks gifted them. The fourteen months old retriever is pretty smart, too. . . only dog we know of that when asked his name is able to tell you! Do you think the fact that his name is "Gruff" has anything to do with it? After leaving Wisconsin our driving duo wended their way down to Chicago where they visited with Richard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wizenick and then it was on home. Going and returning, some the places Richard and Nancy drove through were Carson City (where lucky Nancy won a jackpot), Yellowstone, Billings and Las Vegas. . . where, believe it or not, they didn't even stop!

Letters To the Editor

Dear Editor:
It is my judgment that County government needs overhauling to keep up with the dynamic times in which we are living.

I am recommending, to the citizens of Los Angeles County, changes in the County Charter. (The primary election of 1970.)

I believe that for every million citizens there should be at least one Supervisor. The present population is 7,200,000. This means there should be seven Supervisors. The Regional Planning Commission estimates that in 1985 there will be nine million people and in the year 2005 there will be eleven million people.

There should be a single County-wide Executive Officer (Mayor) to provide better executive control and more economy for all of the 60 County departments. The County Superintendent of Schools should be re-evaluated.

I hope that some of these ideas will stir thought and debate among the voters so that the processes of our representative form of government at a local level will be responsive and dynamic.

I am enclosing an editorial from the April 30 edition of the Press-Journal and Harbor Mail. I also am sending under separate cover some information that will enable you to make an objective study of my proposal.

I would certainly appreciate your support, both editorially and individually.

—Kenneth Hahn
Supervisor, Second District

Dear Editor:

We wish to thank you for the excellent publicity which you have given the Pasadena Area Panhellenic Association during the past year. These releases, we believe, have contributed substantially to the success of our endeavors.

Poisonous Spiders

technical name being Loxosceles Laeta, whose bite is worse than that of a small rattlesnake, is a cousin to the Brown Recluse, a spider found in the middlewestern states. The spider found in Sierra Madre, however, comes from South America.

Spider experts have told us, this spider is a meat eater and hunts its prey. It spins its web in dark places and is classed as a timid spider. However, if wounded or picked up will bite.

Three days after the sting, ulceration of the skin takes place. The poisonous reaction can eat a hole in the skin the size of a quarter or a ten inch diameter, depending upon the amount of poison injected. Further the injection from the spider can attack the nervous system, kidneys, liver and heart and will, if not treated as soon as possible cause death.

All doctors in Los Angeles County have been notified of the symptoms and what to do in the event a patient comes to them for treatment. Serum has been flown in from South America in the event it is needed.

The National Inquiry Magazine just recently had a complete article on the Loxosceles Recluse, the Brown Recluse, but this is not the spider found in our City. The Loxosceles Laeta found here ranges in size from a dime to a half dollar, brownish green in color with its abdomen a greyish beige and on the back of its head and chest is a small violin which is violet in color. It has six eyes and very thin legs.

Scientists and spider experts have spent the better part of last Thursday and Friday searching the buildings in Memorial Park in an attempt to find the central colonization. At this writing their report was not available, however, according to entomologist Waldron, the spider "colony" could have been in the building for as long as two years or more. It is probable that the Violin Spider has remained in and around the Park House itself. All structures in the park which might provide habitat for the spiders have been sprayed chemically to destroy them. The Park House itself is being fumigated on the recommendation of the Los Angeles County Health Department. This being done by covering at 11 a.m. Saturday, June 7.

Also Monday, on recommendation of your City Council the Toy Loan building was covered and fumigated for the safety of all children. The Council further states that any other building where the spider is found will be fumigated.

This of course only eliminates the danger in those buildings. If they were the central part of the colonization, it is felt that the entire danger is now eliminated; however this will not be completely known for at least another week to ten days. It was determined by the scientists, according to size and number, the spiders could have inhabited this area for the past two years.

WARNING: Anyone living in the area of Memorial Park. Should you find a spider that resembles the description given above, immediately put a cup or container over the spider. If possible capture it in a box or container, but do not touch it. Bring it to City Hall. Here is where the "know-how" can be obtained for Sierra Madre. In identification, remember the fiddle markings, and the greenish coloring. You need not be concerned with other spiders, because there will be none around the Loxosceles Laeta. They they devour any living insect within their attacking radius.

Community Center been transmitted to the contractor and the bids on furnishings will be received on June 16.

The dedication ceremony has been arranged immediately following the Fourth of July Parade to be held in front of the Recreation Center. Ceremonies will include the unveiling of the bronze plaque and presentation of dignitaries present. Actual completion of the building is scheduled for July 17th. In order to provide leeway for moving in furniture and getting the building set up, we are anticipating beginning use of the building around the first of August. The snack bar serving the pool, however, will be put into use as soon as it is ready."

If children had the wisdom of old people, then old people would have the innocence of children, which wouldn't be so good.

YOU AND YOUR NEIGHBORS

This month will find Henry and Maxine Danowsky greeting houseguests. First to arrive were Henry's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Danowsky and their daughter, Joan from Philadelphia. They drove out and arrived last Saturday for a two week's visit. Tomorrow arriving for the weekend will be five houseguests. They are Mr. and Mrs. Sim Tawwater, from Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dapper, from Scottsdale, Arizona, and Mr. Richard Guadian from Los Angeles. Hopefully, the group will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. William Cassidy from Auburn, Calif. It will be sort of a reunion of WW II buddies as all of the fellows were in the (then) Army Air Corps. Mr. Gaudian was their commanding officer. If the month of June isn't full enough already with lots of visiting and reminiscing, two school graduations will cause even more activity. Daughter Jayne who expects to enter Valley State in the coming fall, will be graduating from PHS while brother Jim will be graduating from Wilson Junior

L.A. Fair Days Sept. 12 thru 28

Residents of Sierra Madre will enjoy a fun-filled day at the Los Angeles County Fair, Thursday, September 18. Fair dates are September 12 through 28.

Among the numerous attractions of the huge exposition will be games and prizes in the fun zone, charm and enchantment in storybook farm, para-mutual wading at the half-mile track, exciting, foreign exhibits in the international pavilion, and Latin entertainment and fun in the Mexican Village.

Luncheon Held By Guild Members

The Mount Alverno Guild held its annual new board, old board luncheon at a Pasadena restaurant on Wednesday, June 4.

Services Held For Frances Nickolson

Services were held private on Tuesday, June 10, at the hour of 2 p.m. for Frances M. Nickolson, age 58, who passed away Saturday, June 7, at USC County General Hospital, after an illness of several weeks.

Living at 12 Vista Circle Drive, Mrs. Nickolson was a lead lady with the Burroughs-Electro-Dating firm in Pasadena. She came to California from Colorado 46 years ago and lived in Sierra Madre for the past 26 years.

She leaves to mourn her passing, her husband, of the home address, William G. "Nick" Nickolson; one daughter, Mrs. Shirley Riley of Valinda, Calif., and one son, John Montgomery of Rialto, and a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Berry of Duarte. Also 10 grandchildren.

Services were held at the Ripple Mortuary with Rev. Richard Anderson officiating with committal, private at the Pasadena Mausoleum.

Well, boys and girls, it won't be long before commencement oratory will burst upon you like an artillery barrage.

Injunctions Prevent Mass Picketing

Two sweeping Superior Court restraining orders by Judge Richard Schauer, recently put a damper on the strike against Los Angeles supermarkets by the Retail Clerks Union, Local 770 and what the court has, in effect, termed an illicit support of the strike by the Teamsters Union.

The order, temporary until arguments can be heard on it June 16, restrains the 25 locals composing the Teamster Joint Council No. 42 from engaging in a strike or work stoppage against warehouses or distribution centers from which food supplies flow to store customers of the huge Los Angeles area.

It further restrains the Teamster unions from commanding, ordering or instructing employees of the plaintiff stores or employees of other firms which supply the plaintiffs to conduct a stoppage of work; or from imposing or threatening fines or other penalties on Teamsters Union members who choose to stay on the job.

In an equally broad order against the Retail Clerks Local 770, Judge Schauer directed the clerks to refrain from mass picketing, limited pickets to two per entrance or driveway and ordered them off store parking lots. He also restrained them from blocking, obstructing or impeding customers, trucks or cars or harassing, threatening or otherwise intimidating employees or customers.

Pickets, Judge Schauer ruled, cannot compel a customer to listen to their arguments or enter the store for any purpose except shopping or other legitimate business.

Robert K. Fox, president of the Food Employers Council, hailed the ruling as a victory for the public against "Big Unionism."

"It is high time that Big Unionism is shown that it cannot engage in unrestrained warfare against the consumer and his necessities of life through plots and shady power alliances which seek to impose its will on the people through sheer power of numbers and intimidation," said Fox. "Even Big Unionism must realize that part of the price it must pay for the laws that make it possible for unions to operate in a free society is a due and responsible concern for the welfare of its own members and above all, of the public."

Judge Schauer's order against the Teamsters particularly restrained the 25 Teamster locals from carrying or displaying signs or placards at Food Giant stores which say that the stores are on strike or that a labor dispute exists with the stores.

It was at the Food Giant stores that the Retail Clerks union first struck last Wednesday after being assured of support by the Teamsters; and after the Teamsters caused a walkout of clerks at a Food Giant store the day before by throwing a picket line around a complex which houses the Food Giant market in South Gate.

The order against Local 770 further directed pickets to stay 10 feet apart, picket captains to enter the picketed area only for purposes related to picketing, and other union functionaries to any areas under picketing, stay 200 yards away from Judge Schauer also prohibited destruction of store merchandise and strewing store areas with garbage, litter or debris.

Attorneys for the plaintiff stores, which included all supermarkets struck by the clerks' union, said the unions must now obey the order or face contempt of court action by Judge Schauer.

The decision of the court followed one-half hour of fruitless arguments by union attorneys that the plaintiff petition was based on legal grounds which had been already ruled out by a previous Supreme Court decision.

The action was filed on behalf of the supermarkets by the Los Angeles law firm of Joseph M. McLaughlin.

made around these parts... give 'em time.

Just fund out that "Fathers Day" is on the agenda for this Sunday, and that's the day when Father is to be the "King," he will be allowed to come up from the basement and sit in the living room and enjoy the festivities for the day. Since it is Sunday the family will probably hide all the bills, and he will have nothing but pleasant thought for the day... it is sure nice that they pick out one day in the year to honor the breadwinner. Yes sir, it is indeed a very gratifying thought. Wish Uncle Sam would do something about it.

— CT —

Someday, let's hope they find the way to build the ideal nation—A land where opportunity knocks as often as temptation!

— CT —

We're just going to have to do something about our Search and Rescue Team and its deep down need for finances. The fund drive that was in progress this past couple of weeks just didn't seem to come home to the people.

— CT —

Oh yes, some fifteen or twenty people opened up their hearts and poured out some of that hard cash that the team needs, but two or three hundred bucks is not going to go very far when the boys need a minimum of $4,000.

So, from where I sit, it looks like we will have to contact each of you a little more strenuously, certainly we are not going to let the team down, we are not going to disperse with their services, nor is the team going to ignore the call for HELP when it comes to them, therefore we are not going to ignore their call for HELP at this time. Truthfully I do not know what we will have to do, but it will be something.

In the meantime, all you good folks that have a spare dollar of a fiver, or maybe a ten spot that is not working at the present time, send it in, every nickel of it will be put to immediate use. Do it today.

— CT —

To close up the column for this week, let us remind you of the old saying... "The rich get richer and the poor get poorer?" A pert paragrapher observes that the Great Society changed that one. It now reads: "The rich stay rich. The poor get a few crumbs. The crooks have a field day, and the middle class gets soaked for the whole kit and kaboodle." Now isn't that a hell of a way to end a column, I hope, I hope, I hope.

Bury the Past

Homebuyers are familiar with the fact that in the new housing developments undergrounding of utilities is the order of the day. The old forest of poles is no more.

This pleasant improvement is the product of one of those blendings of aesthetics and practicalities of which the American economy is so capable, although not always so productive. The cost element has always been the insurmountable problem; but with their continuing research into ways and means of better serving their customers, the electric utilities have been able to cut costs to a point where the home buyer can have his aesthetics and his efficient service, too.

Pacific Gas and Electric Company, for example, has just cooperated with the people of Carmel Knolls in undergrounding all lines and removing what was once a necessary but unfortunate intrusion upon the beautiful vistas of that community near the Pacific. The cost? With the company bearing its share it came to a little over $600 for each dwelling.

PG&E has budgeted some $8.5 million for such underground projects in other parts of its service area this year — a substantial increase over 1968. In addition, 85 to 90 per cent of that area's new dwellings will be served by buried electric lines right from the beginning.

The past, Shakespeare said, is prologue. Now they're burying the past.

Gone To Pot

California's gubernatorial race has gone to pot. Thanks to the U.S. Supreme Court's decision overturning the conviction of Dr. Timothy Leary for illegalities involving marijuana, the far-out guru of the acid heads is free now to start work on his next project, running for the state's highest office.

Presumably the former, and fired, Harvard professor, will wage a grass roots campaign. In an impromptu press conference following announcement of the Court's ruling, the buckskin clad Leary said "Our guerrilla campaign is coming out from the mountains. The underground is coming overground." He indicated an early plank in his platform would be to "start picking away at state laws on marijuana."

Let Governor Reagan, Jesse Unruh, and San Francisco's Mayor Joe Alioto put THAT in their pipes and smoke it.

Cruel Hoax

Wage hikes without a compensatory increase in productivity are tending more and more to become an exercise in futility as higher production costs force prices up. For this reason, Secretary of Labor Shultz has made it clear that the Administration does not favor further minimum wage increases at this time. Thus it is more than a little surprising to learn that a three-man Wage Board in the District of Columbia has before it a proposal to increase the wage rates for retail employees in the District to $1.80 an hour at one and to $2.00 on February 1, 1970. This Wage Board has the authority to order these wage rates. No approval by Congress, by the Mayor of Washington, or by the City Council is required.

Experience has shown and experts have testified that increases in minimum wages cost job opportunities, primarily for the disadvantaged and for young people. An arbitrary increase such as that proposed in Washington, D.C., by an autonomous Wage Board can perpetrate a cruel hoax on those who most need help. A representative of the retail distribution industry observes: "This disruptive proposal would be most unfortunate for D.C. residents and businesses, because it is our nation's capitol, the ripple effects are likely to be felt throughout the country. Breaching of the $1.60 per hour rate and establishing $2.00 an hour has serious consequence for all . . . Congress should close this loophole." The minimum wage law can create unemployment among the people that business, industry and government are bending every effort to help through training and job opportunities.

Give Them A Hand

"Boypower '76" is the title of a new, long-range expansion plan adopted by the Boy Scouts of America. It will run until 1976, the 200th Anniversary of the founding of the U.S. as a nation. It is aimed to double Scout membership to some 6.5 million.

There was never a more important time in the history of our nation for young people to learn respect for law and order as the basis for their future rights, opportunities, obligations as citizens, and the perpetuation of the liberties they are privileged to enjoy.

Commenting on "Boypower '76" a company in its company publication says: "The success of Scouting for boys of all ages is reflected in the enthusiasm and interest of the volunteer leader. He teaches ideals along with the skills, has a genuine interest in the program, and demonstrates that his great concern is in seeing boys grow."

Encouraging young men to work together, to strive for personal goals in citizenship, community service, vocation exploration, social skills, personal fitness and outdoor living, are the very foundation stones of a government under liberty and law.

The volunteer leaders in Scouting can render a service beyond price. They deserve our wholehearted support. They can help build respect for law and order and property rights that seems to be somehow lacking in our educational system. Give "Boypower '76" a hand today, and the boys will be a steady influence in our country tomorrow.

Vacation Time Again

For the young, there is no freedom to compare with that which comes with the closing of school. The exuberance of the young as they savor release from the necessary disciplines of the classrooms is a wholesome thing to see. This is pure escape, the kind that adults dream about but never achieve. Even for the children, pure untrammelled freedom loses its shine in the latter days of summer when the "nothing to do" stage sets in. Freedom, to be enjoyed, must be earned, and even then, its richness is lost where there is no ultimate sense of direction or minus factor such as household chores that tend to preserve an appreciation of freedom.

The ending of the school year, and the watching of the children in their new-found freedom and the manner in which they use — and abuse — that freedom, should have a special meaning for the adult world today where freedom is being used and abused in ways no one could have foreseen a few short years ago.

SENSING THE NEWS

AROUND THE U. S. CAPITOL

President Nixon's nomination of Judge Warren E. Burger as Chief Justice of the United States is heartening news for a nation deeply troubled over the course and character of the nation's highest court. Judge Burger, described as a "law and order" judge, gives promise of providing a new direction for America's highest tribunal.

Certainly, a housecleaning at the Supreme Court is long overdue. The sordid Fortas affair shocked the American public. It underscored the wisdom of those conservative Senators who, when Abe Fortas was first nominated for the court, termed him a political fixer and wheeler-dealer unfit for judicial office.

The situation involving Justice William O. Douglas, another fiery "liberal" is equally shocking. The ramifications of his involvement with a foundation allegedly linked to hoodlum elements, should be examined in great detail by the Justice Department. It turns out that Justice Douglas was the paid president of the Albert Parviri Foundation and of the Center For the Study of Democratic Institutions, a "liberal" think tank in California that has kept up a drumfire against the foundations of American society, including law and order.

The Fortas and Douglas affairs actually should be regarded simply as openers in any study of the judicial mess. Much remains to be uncovered by investigators. Congressman John Rarick, (D-La.), already has revealed that Justices Fortas and Brennan, plus federal Judges Brazelon and Wright of the federal courts in Washington, have been engaged in business together in the nation's capital — a curious relationship indeed for jurists who are supposed to avoid even the appearance of impropriety.

Chief Justice Earl Warren's call for a code of ethics for federal judges amounts to closing the barn door after the cows have strayed away. Chief Justice Warren cannot escape responsibility that easily. He has supervisory authority over the federal courts, but failed to exercise it. Apparently he was so busy promoting his pet political theories that he didn't have time or the inclination to look for unethical behavior on the bench.

The problem of the judiciary is not simply in the area of ethics, however. The Supreme Court has been busily undermining authority in the nation. For example, in mid-May a unanimous Supreme Court threw out the conviction of Timothy F. Leary, former Harvard University researcher and drug experimenter. The ruling unquestionably complicates the U. S. government's ability to deal with the possession and use of marijuana, a profoundly harmful mind-influencing drug.

The Associated Press, in reporting the decision, said that the ruling "seriously damaged — perhaps fatally — the marijuana laws." This surely would be a tragic development for the country. Marijuana, while not addictive in the manner of heroin and other hard drugs, upsets and deranges a user's personality and moral values. The Bureau of Narcotics of the Justice Department has pointed out that marijuana use is the stepping stone to hard drugs and to dangerous chemicals such as LSD.

In other words, the Supreme Court had a duty to be mindful of the social consequences of robbing the federal government of lawful authority over marijuana. But, as in so many other cases in the past 15 years, the court has been unmindful of the right of society to protect itself against known evils. Instead in the Leary marijuana ruling, the court said the government had denied Timothy Leary protection against self-incrimination. Hopefully, Judge Burger will bring a new outlook to the Supreme Court. He is on record, in a 1967 dissent to a reversal of a narcotic conviction, saying:

"I refuse to join in what I consider an unfortunate trend of judicial decisions in this field which strain and stretch to give the guilty not the same, but vastly more protection than the law-abiding citizen."

The Burger philosophy is desperately needed, for the Supreme Court has not only eased the lot of narcotic violators but has opened the door to the smut-peddlers who are flooding the nation with hard-core pornography. The rights of society need the protection they have not had under the Warren Court.

George D. Aiken, Senator (R-Vt.):

"Common sense should tell us that we have now accomplished our purpose as far as South Vietnam is concerned."

scaped. No one was hurt but it made Mrs. Wheeler dizzy. All the caps and cap-guns were collected, for fear of an explosion. We all hope it won't happen again.

Mrs. A. H. Gibbs entertained a wedding party Monday night at her home, 194 Santa Anita Court, in honor of her two nieces, Mrs. Floyd McIntyre, nee Margaret Mackie of Sierra Madre, and Mrs. Robert Orme, nee Thelma McElwain, of Pasadena.

A crowd which overflowed into the hallway heard the City Council Tuesday night approve plans for the construction of a Catholic high school for girls in Sierra Madre. The school will be built on the 13-acre estate of the Sisters of St. Francis, 675 West Highland, and eventually will accommodate 500 girls. The condition-I use permit approved by the Council contains, however, three unusual stipulations. Made by Council Webster Vannier, they are: 1. No swimming will be permitted at night (there is no pool on the grounds at present). 2. No competitive games will be allowed at night. 3. No dogs will be permitted on the grounds.

Mrs. Helen Carey, 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Carey of Sierra Madre, left Saturday evening for Ketchikan, Alaska, to spend the summer with her godmother, Mrs. R. P. Walsh, who recently lost her husband and sent an urgent invitation to little Miss Helen to come stay with her. This is the fifth trip to Alaska that Helen has made, two of them being made alone. This time Mrs. Walsh will meet her in Seattle and will return all the way back with her in September to visit extensively with the Careys here. Mr. Carey formerly was employed by Mr. Walsh at his fish cannery in Alaska.
